OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

Janesville Daily Gazette.

VOLUME 8.

JANEVILLE, WIS. WEDNESDAY, NOV. 30, 1864.

NUMBER 233.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE is now the largest paper printed in the State, and having the matter published in the Daily to select from, we challenge comparison with any newspaper in Wisconsin. In our editorial, in reliable market reports, in giving the latest news from all quarters, in literary matter and in local information relating to their city and county, we shall spare no pains to make the WEEKLY GAZETTE worthy of public patronage and support.

The News.

It is said General Grant has information that A. P. Hill's corps has been withdrawn from Lee's army and sent south to meet Sherman. Its place is filled by a portion of Early's troops.

Mr. Roger A. Pryor, who didn't fight Judge Potter's case, once upon a time, was taken prisoner lately, and has been sent to the old Capitol prison. Pryor has been serving as a private in the rebel ranks. Imagine his feelings as he is incarcerated in the very building where he used to "spread himself" and insult the "terrible man himself!"

The rebel Admiral Buchanan, captured at Mobile, is to be sent to Fort Warren for safe keeping.

A number of Connecticut soldiers lost their lives by the blowing up of a bridge at Newbern.

A movement co-operative with Gen. Grant from North Carolina, is hinted at. The New York incendiaries still continue to ply their trade. An attempt was made to fire the International Hotel last night. Guests will be likely to choose bedrooms as near the ground as possible.

Guns have been sent to Grant that will throw shells into Richmond, and a new shell invented that is said to be very destructive.

Mr. Leach, of North Carolina, on the 25th, offered certain peace preambles and resolutions that set the rebel Congress in a blaze. They will be found in the telegraphic columns and may be cited in evidence that there still lingers a ray of reason in the Southern mind. Leach supported his resolutions by a speech, but they were voted down.

Mrs. Joshua R. Giddings died at Jefferson, Ashtabula county, Ohio, on the 15th inst.

The Next Congress.

Hon. I. C. Sloan, member of Congress from this district, left the city this morning for Washington, where he will be ready to resume the duties of his position at the opening of the session next Monday. After one term in Congress, served under many trying and discouraging circumstances to a new member, Mr. Sloan returns with the most flattering evidences of the regard and favor of his constituency. His majority of over thirty-six hundred on the home vote after a very thorough and energetic canvass on the part of the opposition, led by their candidate for Congress, who is considered one of their best stump orators in the State, might be considered a very handsome endorsement by any man. At the next session of Congress after the one now about to convene, it will be Mr. Sloan's duty, as it will be his pleasure, to assist in amending the Constitution of the United States so that involuntary slavery shall be forever abolished from the land of Washington. The co-operation of the present Congress will not allow such a measure to pass at present, if for no other reason, than to punish the people who have so signally punished them.

EXAMINER.—The publishers of the Buffalo Express have been forced by the exorbitant rates now demanded for paper to curtail their sheet. They say:

"We have the choice of three alternatives in the case—either to advance the price; or reduce the size; or lose money in the prosecution of our newspaper business. The first alternative, our readers might not fancy, while the latter we have determined to reduce the size of the sheet as most likely to be satisfactory both to our readers and ourselves. At present we get but little more than the cost of the white paper upon which the Express is printed, which affords no adequate reward for the capital and labor expended in the prosecution of our enterprise."

EARL RUSSELL ON NEGRO EMANCIPATION.—Earl Russell has been installed Rector of the Aberdeen University. In the course of a speech which he made on the occasion, he said:

There is another portion of the globe where we still have to lament scenes of bloodshed. We still have to lament the bloody arbitrament of war in America. We have to lament that that war has not yet been brought to a close. If there is any light spot in the dark scene, it is for the African race. I cannot but believe that the cruel war in America, whichever way it may end, whether the States unite again, or whether there is to be final separation, I cannot but believe that out of these events the African race are to receive their freedom.

MONTICELLO, the former residence of Thomas Jefferson, in Albemarle County, Va., was sold at auction at Richmond on Thursday, under the sequestration act, for eighty thousand five hundred dollars. Benjamin F. Pickin, purchaser. A negro woman and her seven children (all of the latter being under seven years of age), brought twenty-three thousand dollars. A negro man was sold for upward of seven thousand dollars.

A patent has just been issued by the Land Office to Major General Halleck for a tract of valuable land, embracing about thirty-five thousand acres, known as Rancho de Los Americanos, in California. The land has several mines upon it, in which a number of business houses of New York and Boston are largely interested.

FROZEN TO DEATH.—A Norwegian by the name of Andrew Kjosness, residing near the village of Cambridge in this county, was found dead and frozen about four miles from his house last Tuesday morning. He was a man of very intemperate habits and had fallen down while intoxicated and frozen to death.—Madison Journal.

Letter from the Eighth Regiment.

RECEIVED AT THE JANEVILLE POST OFFICE, ON AND BY MAIL, NOV. 25th, 1864.

Editors Gazette.—The fleet conveying the 1st division, 10th Army Corps, Gen. John McArthur commanding, left St. Louis yesterday about 1 p. m., and tied up about forty miles below last night at dark, the ice running pretty thick and the darkness of the night rendered it unsafe to proceed any further until morning. Today the winds are blowing almost a hurricane, and we make but little headway. We are at this time, twenty-four hours out and only have made fifty miles. This morning at about 8 o'clock we passed the transport "L. Ewing," sunk to four feet above her guns. She was the flag ship of our brigade, having headquarters on board, besides Waterhouse's Chicago Battery, five companies of the 5th Minnesota, five companies of the 11th Missouri Infantry and a large amount of transportation. The cause of the sinking we did not learn; as the Memphis Packet G. W. Graham and transport "Marmora" was lying along side and rendering assistance we did not stop. Lt. Sargent of Co. G, on the staff, is on board of her, besides one orderly from our regiment.

The weather is very cold and most of the men on the transport are stowed away in the hold to keep warm. All the troops on the "Ewing" were in the hold as on our boat, and she went down quickly, many must have drowned. The officers' quarters are in the cabins of all transports so that no fear need be entertained as to the safety of the officers.

Sergeant's duty, by his friends in Janesville. Our destination will not make known. We pass up the Ohio from Cairo, and you can guess the rest. The troops have all been paid for six months, and have new clothes and almost look like new recruits, as far as dress is concerned. We have a nice boat and plenty of room; nothing on board but the 1st Division of the Pioneer Corps, and the 8th Wisconsin. We were quartered in Benton Barracks while in St. Louis, and on our way to the boats passing the Lindell House, we were loudly cheered by Laura Keane's New York troupe, from the balcony. The regiment is very healthy notwithstanding the hardships it has recently passed through. We have but nine companies here, comprising over 300 men. One company of 35 men is detached at Division headquarters as Provost guard, so we have present about 340 men, and 103 we will meet at Paducah, making 443.

Respectfully Yours, W. B. B.

W. R. COBB EMBRACES THE OLD FLAG.—In the rebel House of Representatives, on motion of Mr. Chilton (Ala.), to proceed to consider the resolution concerning the disloyalty of Hon. Williams R. Cobb, one of the witnesses against Mr. Cobb deposed that when the Yankee troops passed up the Chattanooga River, just before the Chattanooga battle, Mr. Cobb came to his door, and said he wanted to see the United States flag once more unfurled to the breeze. He took the flag and embraced and kissed it.

Approved.—The board of the county officers was to-day presented and approved by the Board of Supervisors.

ANNOUNCED.—The Board of Supervisors adjourned this afternoon to the first Tuesday in January. A report of their doings since yesterday noon is necessarily deferred until to-morrow.

COMING IN constant contact with old complaints, Dr. Price has become thoroughly acquainted with their peculiarities and treatment needed to remove them. But few physicians have had the opportunities for investigating this class of diseases that Dr. Price has had. The practical knowledge acquired by these extended observations with his thorough education, common sense views and prompt attention has placed him ahead of any in his line of the profession. The regularity of his visits the last six years to his credit and proves that his treatment in a majority of cases has been successful; were it otherwise, he would have discontinued his visits before this. Diseases of the head, heart, nerves, liver, kidneys, lungs, throat, stomach and blood in a chronic form lie beneath a certainty of recovery if presented in a suitable stage. Dr. Price is not one of those quack-alike that flood the country with dishonesty or quackery, but a candid, educated and skillful physician, and as such we can recommend him to all in need of his services.—Niles (Mich.) Republican.

Dr. Price has regularly visited Janesville for years and is to be depended upon. He will be at the Hyatt House for consultation during Saturday and Sunday the 10th and 11th of December. Those ill can treat with him with confidence.

W. H. Tripp.

DOTT'S WASHING MACHINES.—Every housekeeper needs washing-day. The labor required to do the family washing, the discomfort of the entire day, the exhaustion that follows, to say nothing of the wear and tear of the clothing in the weary process of rubbing and wringing, render the day and the work a horror to women. But Doty's Washing Machine simplifies the matter amazingly. It washes clothes quick and clean, and with the wringer attached, there need be no wear whatever to the garments. It is very light, simple and compact, and so easily operated that a child of a dozen years can manage it. We have one in our household, and though we cannot easily persuade our stout, enduring Norwegian maid that any machine for washing is superior to her own two hands, and who has an unconquerable aversion to every species of labor-saving kitchen utensil, yet, if we did the washing ourselves, we should use the machine, as would all American women. Who housekeepers do their own work, from choice, or servants, this machine must be invaluable. A trial of it is all that is necessary to its hearty endorsement.—New Concord.

A FRAGRANT BREATH AND PEARLY TEETH are easily attained, and those who fail to avail themselves of the means should not complain when accused of gross neglect. The Sensitive will speedily eradicate the cause of a foul breath, beautify and preserving the teeth to their oldest age.

FROM THE SOUTH.

New York, Nov. 29.—In the rebel House of Representatives on the 25th, J. P. Leach of North Carolina, offered the following resolutions, with preamble: Whereas, the unfriendly interference of citizens of non-slave holding states with the reserved rights of states, was the cause of this cruel, bloody and relentless war, and Whereas, the citizens of the slave states, in an unguarded moment, under the influence of unwise council and without mature deliberation as to the fearful consequences, made the election of Abraham Lincoln the occasion for precipitating the Confederate States out of the Union followed by a fearful train of consequences, and Whereas, we the Representatives of the people desire to place ourselves fairly before the civilized world, as anxious to secure an honorable and permanent peace, and

Resolved, That any attempt to infringe upon the reserved rights of the states, should be resisted by all lawful means.

Resolved, That when the United States shall signify its willingness to recognize these rights and guarantee to citizens the rights of property as provided by the Constitution and laws of Congress, we will agree to treat for peace on such terms as may be agreed upon by commissioners or by states acting in their sovereign character, and ratified by a majority of the people, which shall constitute the bond of peace between the North and South.

Mr. Leach sustained these resolutions in a speech and then they were voted down almost unanimously.

The Richmond Dispatch of Nov. 23d, says: "Most persons seem to have very little idea of the situation of the railroad in the country in which Sherman is now operating. We will endeavor to make it as clear as we can."

Two railroads, beside the Chattanooga, which runs north, have their rise in Atlanta. The Georgia Railroad runs nearly due east, strikes the South Carolina boundary at Hamburg, becomes thence the South Carolina Railroad, and terminates in Charleston. The Macon Railroad runs from Atlanta due south to Barterville; thence at right angles to its former course in an easterly direction to Macon. Thence to Savannah, pursuing a nearly south-easterly course, runs the Central Railroad.

About fifteen miles east of Macon, a branch railroad runs through Milledgeville to a place called Etowah. This place is about fifteen miles from Madison, on the Georgia Railroad. It is said that a portion of Sherman's army went out as far as Madison on the Georgia Railroad, and leaving it struck out across to Etowah, the immediate object being Milledgeville, the capital of the State. It is believed that Sherman himself pursued the Macon Railroad until he came to Griffin, several miles above Milledgeville, and thence struck to Gordon, avoiding Milledgeville, and by this movement placed his whole force in the rear of it. The Georgia Railroad terminates at Augusta, Ga., on the opposite side of the river.

New York, Nov. 29.—The Richmond Dispatch of the 20th has an article on the world's opinion of Sherman's military tactics. It says there never was a greater mistake than the Yankee belief that the capture of Richmond would ruin the Confederacy. The moral effect, in its full force, of a while certainly is great, but there would be counterbalancing advantages that would more than outweigh it. It would relieve General Lee's army who not then having the capital to defend, could maneuver as it pleased. The Tribune thinks the article premature to the credulity of the rebel capital.

The Sentinel has a long article in which it praises the soldierly qualities of Grant and Sherman.

New York, Nov. 30.—The Savannah Republican of the 24th contains contradictory statements as to Sherman's movements. It says the column operating on the Georgia railroad kept the western side and struck off in the direction of Macon as though contemplating a junction with the forces in that vicinity. It is also stated that a strong force of cavalry is following Sherman and it is not impossible that Forrest may ere long hang like a wolf on his rear and flanks.

FROM WASHINGTON.

New York, Nov. 20.—The Commercial's Fort Worth correspondence says it has been known to General Grant that A. P. Hill's entire rebel corps has been detached from Lee's army and sent south, probably to meet Sherman. Its place has been taken by two divisions of Early's army.

The evening edition of the American publishes the following: The city is full of rumors to-day in relation to the raid on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, but up to the time of going to press have not been able to obtain anything definite. One of the reports is that New Creek has been captured by the raiders, and another says that a point is also in their possession. We only give these reports as current rumors and cannot vouch for their correctness. New Creek has been for some time strongly fortified, and if it has been captured we should have heard some of the particulars by telegraph.

New York, Nov. 29.—The Commercial's Washington special says Roger A. Pryor has just been escorted along Pennsylvania Avenue under guard to the Old Capitol Prison.

He wore a handsome uniform of gray, and nodded familiarly to old acquaintances.

Judge Bates has engaged Ex-Attorney General Coffey to manage the Government cases in the next term of the Supreme Court.

The rebel Admiral Buchanan is to be sent to New York and thence to Fort Warren, Boston Harbor.

Washington, Tuesday, Nov. 29.—Latest information from Sherman's army probably that from Ex-Gen. Pryor, a prisoner who was brought hither to-day, and lodged in the Old Capitol Prison. He was captured last Sunday, near Petersburg. Several gentlemen who were present during a conversation with him say he admitted that Sherman had captured Macon and Milledgeville, and that there was little, if any, doubt from the rapid progress he was making that he had captured Augusta, and would encounter nothing serious to impede his march to the seaboard. That with Augusta in his possession, the southwest would be cut off from Richmond, and that no troops could be sent from Lee to reinforce Savannah.

Gen. Pryor talked freely and apparently with frankness, remarking: that the South now regarded Gen. Sherman with more alarm than any other officer in the service of the United States, and that the press of the South would not be so communicative as heretofore regarding Sherman's movements. He understood it was reported that Sherman had liberated a number of prisoners and armed them, but that this rumor needed confirmation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Subscriptions to the 7.30 loan for last week amounted to three and one half millions.

Some of the recently exchanged prisoners from the South have arrived here.

FROM GRANT'S ARMY.

New York, Nov. 29.—The correspondent of the Tribune says guns have been sent to the front which will throw shells into Richmond from our nearest position. The shells are inflammable to an extraordinary degree, and it is thought that the rebels will be burned out with them.

New York, Nov. 30th.—The World's Potomac army correspondent, speaking of the capture of Roger A. Pryor says: Pryor appears very sanguine of the ultimate success of the rebellion, and ridicules the idea of our putting faith in the statements of deserters and spies. He does not appear to be much cast down by his present misadventure but regards the means to secure his capture as not strictly in accordance with the code of honor, and as more particularly severe in his case as he
